The Tortoise and the Hare

One day, a tortoise was walking down the road. He was walking very slowly. A hare came along and saw the tortoise.

"What are you doing, Mr. Tortoise?" asked the hare.

"I'm walking," said the tortoise.

"Your legs are too short, and you are so slow!" laughed the hare.

"You are wrong. I'm not slow, but I don't like to hurry," said the tortoise.

"Well, let's have a race," said the hare. "Let's see who can get to the lake first." "OK," said the tortoise. "I'm going to win!" said the hare, and he ran down the road.

The hare ran and ran. Soon he came to a tall tree. "Where is the tortoise? I can't see him. He is far behind me," he thought. Then he went to sleep under the tree.

The tortoise walked and walked. After a long time, he came to the tall tree. He saw the hare. He was hot and tired, too. But he didn't stop.

The hare opened his eyes. "Ah! What a nice sleep! Where is the tortoise now? Oh, no! Did I sleep too long? I must hurry!"

The hare ran down the road to the lake. Soon he saw the lake.

The hare got to the lake. Then he saw the tortoise. The tortoise was there waiting for him. The tortoise laughed and said, "I win the race!"

The Dog and the Bone

One day, a dog was taking a walk in the city park. He saw a bone in the grass. He was very happy.

The bone was very heavy, but the dog didn't want any help. Why? Because he didn't want his friends to eat any of the bone.

"I can carry the bone to the forest! It is far from the park. My friends can't find me there," he thought.

So the dog walked to the forest, carrying the heavy bone in his mouth. He carried the bone down a road.

Then the dog saw a big lake. He looked in the water. In the water, he saw a dog. The dog had a very big bone.

"That bone is bigger than mine," thought the dog. "I want my bone and that bone, too." He looked at the dog in the water, and the dog in the water looked at him. "Give me your bone!" he barked at the dog in the water.

When he barked, his bone fell into the lake.

Now the dog didn't have two bones. He didn't have any bones!
Did he learn a lesson? Yes! Be happy with the bone you have.

Three Little Pigs

Long ago, there were three little pigs. When they grew up, they left home to build their own houses.

The first little pig built a house of hay. It was easy to make. It took him one day to build the house. Then he went to play.

The second little pig built a house of wood. It took him three days. He was very happy. He thought his house was nice.

The third little pig built a house of stone. It was hard. It took him three months to finish the house. He was tired but happy. The house was strong and beautiful.

One day, a bad wolf came. He was hungry – VERY hungry. He liked to eat little pigs. He came to the hay house. “Come out, little pig. I want to eat you!” roared the wolf. The first little pig locked the door. But the wolf blew the hay house down. The first little pig ran to the second pig’s house.

The wolf ran after him to the house made of wood. “Come out, little pigs. I want to eat you!” roared the wolf. The two little pigs locked the door. But the big bad wolf blew and blew... and the wooden house fell down. The two little pigs ran to the third pig’s home.

The bad wolf ran after them to the stone house. The three pigs hid inside the house. They were afraid. The wolf blew and blew. The stone house was very strong. He couldn't blow it down. Finally the wolf gave up and went away. The three little pigs were saved.
